Offer for the domain "Kampmann.com"

Hello Mads,

thank you very much for the friendly phone call.

As I said, regardless of whether we come to an agreement on the domain purchase or not, we are interested in a good and sensible way of communication - now and also after our negotiations. I'm glad that this is also in your interest.

Certainly, the domain kampmann.com is interesting from a marketing point of view, but we also have a corresponding budget and cannot pay every price, especially as we are currently presenting the international context at kampmanngroup.com. Thanks very much for your understanding for that.

As discussed on the phone, we have obtained an evaluation of the domain kampmann.com at our own costs via sedo.com.

10 factors are used to determine the value of a domain at Sedo. The following factors are considered: domain extension, length, memorability, linguistic suitability, typo susceptibility, international usability, search engine suitability, advertising potential, sales opportunities and business potential.

Based on this assessment of publicly available factors and an analysis of domain characteristics, sedo.com estimates the market value of kampmann.com to be: €6,000.00. Comparable transactions were around 5.000 – 8000 USD. Please see the attachment. If you would like to have the evaluation in English, please let us know.

As already indicated on the phone, this is a value at which you will not sell the domain. For this reason, I spoke with the management last week in order to present a very interesting price for you. We are offering you for giving up/selling the domain "Kampmann.com" a price of:

12,000 € plus any taxes that might be due

Furthermore, we would take care of the domain transfer and possibly also take over any costs that might arise. We are bound to this price/offer until 15.10.2022.

We would be pleased if this offer appeals to you. We will also be happy to answer any further questions or queries you may have. If you like the offer, I would take care that we clarify the contract. In addition, I would then take our web technician on board.

So, thank you again for the friendly phone call.

I will hear from you.

Kind regards from Lingen an der Ems

Dear Mads,

thank you for letting me know about this ongoing process. I wasn't aware that our Marketing staff still tries to get 'kampmann.com' as one of our multiple domains.

To be honest, I don't understand why they need a domain for every single country we make business.

Years ago I agreed to spent 4.000€ for kampmann.com. I understand that this was no reasonable offer for you.

I fully agree that you don't want to deal with the same issue again and again.

I will instruct my employees and our provider to finally close this case. We won't bother you again.

GmbH

Thanks for your email below.

We have now spent more than 12 years - getting nowhere!

The history tells us both, that you and Kampmann GmbH directly and indirectly has confirmed that we have difficulties in finding the price/value of the domainname: KAMPMANN.COM

A lot of time and money have been spent in the 12 years period - without getting any closer to a solution.

The only thing we for sure found out after all these years is, that your customer is: Kampmann GmbH.
<https://www.kampmann.de/>

I've enclosed the email-string, ending at the 27th of November 2013. Your final offer at that time was: Euro; 3.000,-.

But you also suggested, that we could let an expert from SEDO.COM make af valuation of the domainname: KAMPMANN.COM - which, considering the history and the expectations for the future - could be the solution to get closer to some kind of estimated value of the domainname: KAMPMANN.COM

We don't make the value estimated by SEDO.COM as any agreed price, but only takes it as a suggestion/valuation, from which we perhaps can find an acceptable price for both parties: Kampmann GmbH and Powernation ApS.

The value estimated by SEDO.COM don't commits Kampmann GmbH to buy the domainname at that price/ valuation!

The value estimated by SEDO.COM don't commits Powernation ApS to sell the domainname at that price/valuation!

Lets call it: "A NEW BEGINNING WITH SEDO.COM"

The procedure could go like this:

- 1) We agree upon the fact that "time is money" and that we need: "A NEW BEGINNING WITH SEDO.COM"
- 2) Powernation ApS makes a prospect, where important elements are presented for the "Domainname Valueation Team" at SEDO.COM
- 3) Kampmann GmbH gets the prospect for comments, before Powernation ApS send it to SEDO.COM
<https://www.kampmann.co.uk/company/about-kampmann/board-management/board-management.html>
- 4) Before Powernation ApS start making the prospect, Kampmann GmbH pays Powernation ApS Euro:

4.000,-

covering the cost Powernation ApS had – caused by Kampmann GmbH by sending the case to WIPO - Opening the “Kampmann Case” again - and covering the cost of making the prospect.

Euro: 4.000,- is “Less Than One Euro A Day”, since the first contact in January 2004!!!!
(12 years a 365 days = 4380 days) to forget the past and to start “A NEW BEGINNING WITH SEDO.COM”

5) Powernation ApS Bank Account: IBAN-nummer: DK6976700004316985
BIC-kode/SWIFT-adresse: RINGDK22
Subject: “A NEW BEGINNING WITH SEDO.COM”
Amount: Euro: 4.000,-

If I don't see any payments to my bankaccount before March 4th. 2016 – I consider the case closed forever!

Dear Mr. Sven Becker, as I started this email: We have now spent more than 12 years - getting nowhere!

“A NEW BEGINNING WITH SEDO.COM” could cut down handling time dramatically, and an agreement will only be made between Powernation ApS and Kampmann GmbH:

<https://www.kampmann.co.uk/company/about-kampmann/board-management/board-management.html>

So goodbye to you and thank you for all your efforts during more than 12 years.

And godday to Managing Director: Hendrik Kampmann, Kampmann GmbH for “A NEW BEGINNING WITH SEDO.COM”

Hoping for your business wise understanding.

Best regards/

Dear Mr. Rosentoft,

thanks for your email and all the documents / informations ... we are the isp of the customer and I don't know anything about this dispute until today.

However, I think it is ok to ask (again), if you are willing to sell the domain.

1) What makes you believe that we will succeed this time?

-> because you wrote " The domain: KAMPMANN.COM - could be for sale, if the price is right."

2) Do you have any suggestions?

-> ok, in 2013 you offered the domain for EUR 10.000,- is this still a price manageable price?

Kind regards,

Dear Mr. Sven Becker

Thank you for your/your customers offer - Which is rejected!

In 2013 I offered the domain: KAMPMANN.COM to a very attractive price. Euro 10.000,-

You didn't want to pay the price at that time.

Instead your customer (which I haven't any idea of at that time) respondent

Powernation ApS for WIPO accusing Powernation ApS for several violations of their intangible rights and other things. Some people call it: "Reverse Hijacking"

I've enclosed the documents in question. And they lost their case!!!!

When you now are familiar with your customers handling of the case: KAMPMANN.COM - do you then think, that your customers offer is reasonable - regarding other companies: time and money, legal intangible rights, normal business procedures in northern Europe, all the people that's are offended, etc. etc.?

If I don't hear anything from you, I must conclude, that the behavior from Kampmann GmbH in this case, is their normal standards of business behavior - to which I have no intention to do business with!!! And I have to questionmark, what kind of business Kampmann GmbH is running worldwide and the way they and the way they are it?

Mr. Becker, I will finish this email with the questions in my latest mail:

- 1) What makes you believe that we will succeed this time?
- 2) Do you have any suggestions?

Looking forward to hear from you again. But I don't expect to hear from you today, because it takes a lot of time to read all the documents, but much longer to respond to all the accusations!!!

I just remind you again, that more than 12 years has gone - since your first request!!!???
